SENATOR VANCE'S POEM.

Our Mary had a little lamb,
And her heart was most intent To make me wool beyond its worth, Bring 50 per cent.

But a pauper girl across the sea Had one small lamb above, Whose wool for less than half that sum She'd willingly let go.

Another girl who had no sheep, No stockings—wool nor fax—But money enough just to buy A pair without the tax.

Went to the pauper girl to get Some wool to shield her feet,
And make her stockings not of fax,
But of wool complete.

When Mary saw the girl's design, She straight began to swear That she'd make her buy both wool and fax, Or let one leg go bare.

So she cried out: "Protect reform!
Let pauper sheep wool free!
If it will keep both of her legs warm What will encourage me?"

So it was done, and people said Where'er that poor girl went,
One leg was warmed with wool and one With 50 per cent.

Now praise to Mary and her lamb Who did the scheme invent To clothe one-half a girl in wool And one-half in a per cent.

All honor, too, to Mary's friend,
And all protective acts, That clothe the rich in wool And wrap the poor in tax.

SHOE FACTORY.

Public Meeting at the Council Chamber Tomorrow Evening.

Shoe factory in Maysville!

It now looks like it was a go.

For several days parties have been canvassing the city, securing stock for a shoe factory.Most of the stock has already been subscribed for, and at last it looks like Maysville has some men who are willing to invest in a legitimate enterprise.The projectors of this movement are so much encouraged that it has been decided to hold a public meeting at the Council Chamber at 7:30 tomorrow evening to complete arrangements for starting the factory.Business men and all interested in the city are cordially invited to be present.

FILED AWAY.

Charge Against Garrett Donovan For Shooting Squire Kabler.The shooting of Squire Kabler by Garrett Donovan near Minerva has already been detailed in THE LEDGER.It will be remembered that Mr. Donovan surrendered himself to Squire Weaver, by whom he was held pending the result to Kabler.The wounded man being yet alive, with the chances now in favor of recovery, it was concluded to have an examining trial Saturday.Mr. Donovan was represented by Hons.
G. S. Wall and Leslie Worthington of this city.No one appeared for the prosecution, and no defense was made by Kabler.There was a strong array of witnesses, and all testified to the quarrelsome nature of Mr. Kabler.On motion of Mr. Donovan's attorneys the case was filed away for the present and he was discharged from his bond.It is understood that if Mr. Kabler recovers he will accept from Mr. Donovan pay for what interest he has in his growing crops and move away from the neighborhood, an arrangement entirely satisfactory to Mr. Donovan.

BENJAMIN F. WILLIAMS.

His Death From Pneumonia Early Yesterday Morning.Benjamin F. Williams, whose illness has already been noted by THE LEDGER, died from pneumonia about 3 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, Second and Union streets.In boyhood, while working for the support of his mother and sister, Mr. Williams had the misfortune to lose an arm in the old Hemp Factory in Newtown.Despite this deplorable accident he maintained a resolute will, and when he approached man's estate he began teaching school, and for many years was the efficient Principal in the school where he had received his own education.About a year ago, on account of failing health, he relinquished this place and entered upon mercantile pursuits.The stringent times, coupled with the recent loss of a favorite son, so preyed upon his mind that he became despondent, and on several occasions he tried to destroy himself.A few days ago he was seized with pneumonia, and in his weakened condition he soon fell a victim to the disease.Mr. Williams was a good citizen, honest and upright in all his dealings.He leaves a devoted wife and five children.The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, under the auspices of Ringgold Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F.

ANOTHER KILLING.

Wesley Osborne Kills Hiram Adams at Cottageville Yesterday.Just as THE LEDGER goes to press a report comes that Wesley Osborne kills Hiram Adams.The tragedy took place at Cottageville shortly after noon yesterday.Adams was shot through the heart and died instantly.In trying to separate the parties William Pritchard was shot through the wrist.It is said that the parties had been drinking and had fallen out over a game of cards, which started the fight.

Osborne made his escape.

The insurance loss on the stock of N.
& H. D. Watson at Shannon was adjusted and paid the day following the destruction of their store, and while the fire was yet burning. They were insured in the Royal, one of Duley & Baldwin's "royal" companies.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No paper can afford to give advertising or "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over the counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes.
A newspaper is a legitimate business institution. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.The continued calls upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:For all notices of marriages, weddings, funerals, deaths, public entertainments, and for ordinary notices, resolutions of respect, &c., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS PER LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule without exception.This does not include notices of Lodge meetings or church services, which must not exceed ten lines in length.THE LEDGER has contributed in the way of free advertisements hundreds of dollars, where other parties have scarcely contributed as many cents.
THE LEDGER has been, and is, friendly to all enterprises that the community asked of us have become greater than we can bear, and altogether out of proportion to the contributions made by the wealthiest supporters of such causes in the city or county. These words are spoken in all kindness, with no desire to offend anybody, but solely in self defense.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of Davis & Trapp has been dissolved, R. Davis retiring, and all bills due the firm will be collected by business and assumes all responsibilities.

POSTAL EMPLOYES.

President Cleveland's Executive Order of 18th April Being Revised.The Postoffice Department is sending to all postoffice employees copies of an executive order issued by President Cleveland in 1881, warning clerical and office holders against the use of their official positions in attempts to control local political movements. In a notice accompanying the executive order, the Postmaster General says:All persons American citizens, condition and private opinions are entitled of right to a kindly service by their Government, with attention, civility and accommodating assistance on the part of its agents, but especially without offense to their sensibilities. The Postmaster must therefore, be patient, courteous and helpful in transacting business, compel his clerks to similar conduct or dismiss them, and so govern himself and them that every proper visitor may leave gratified by good treatment. Advantage of the enforced opportunity should never be taken to subject visitors to the public office either to proselyting attempts to convert them or to other wounds of feeling by expressions in opposition to their opinions, political, religious or otherwise. The regulation forbids, further, that the Postmaster should install himself as the manipulator of the political affairs of his own party. He is not thereby abridged of his privileges as a citizen, but restrained from encroachment on those of his fellow-citizens.

PATRIOTIC DEMOCRAT.

A Boyd County Freeman Has a Brilliant Inning.

HE SCORES THE TRUCKLERS.

This Time the Democratic Rooster Hops On Top the American Flag and Proposes to Stay Right There.Some days ago the week-kneek Democrats of the Carlisle Club of Catelettsburg passed resolutions denouncing the A. P. A. as un-American and un-American.This brought out the following letter, which we find in THE Ashland News:"Rush, Ky., June 15th, 1894.
"Editor of THE Ashland News: Allow me, through the column of your valuable paper, to say, in the form of the second Psalm, let the Parkland Democratic Club and the Carlisle Club imagine a vain thing, and still those patriotic Democrats of Boyd county will be loyal, liberty-loving, patriotic members of the American Protective Association. I say there are more A. P. A. Democrats in Boyd county than Carlisle Club Democrats. Now, if this minority has the authority that it presumes to have in that important notice to Democrats, I, as an A. P. A. Democrat, demand my card, from the simple fact that those resolutions are the principles of the Democracy that I have so much loved I want to say candidly that I was instructed wrong, received a false education, and now, prejudiced as I am for my party, I shall step down and out."I place myself on the megawump market, and if I did not demand for my services there, I will not demand myself to remain an A. P. A. Because if patriotic Democracy means to vote into power a man or men that would obliterate and exterminate and send to an eternal hell every free institution of our beloved land, I want to say again that I have been erroneously instructed. I have known since infancy that there was a people trying to get possession of this Government through the pretense of religion, but have just learned that the great prerequisite to patriotic Democracy was to vote that class of people into power. Coming from the source it did it sounded very nice. But I do not accept it as truth, for I am a Democrat, always have been, and my father and brothers are loyal to the cause.
I expect to vote the Democratic ticket in 1894, also in 1896, and believe I will come as near being patriotic to the principles of Democracy as those signing those resolutions, for I am an A. P. A. Democrat, and I affirm that the A. P. A.'s have neither religion nor politics."But we uphold the right of all men to worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience, hence we will neither denounce nor combat any system of religion whatever. We will, however, recognize the distinction between religion, per se, and the political machinery, political ambitions, and political wire pullers, whether domestic or foreign, that use any religion as a means of personal or class advantage or advancement. The political end of religion will receive our constant and careful attention. We will steadfastly maintain the principle that a free Republic cannot long exist where church and state are not as wisely and permanently divided as are heaven and hades. A P. A. is the embodiment of the true American ideal—free schools, free speech, free press, free thought, free religion and free Government.""And we unwaveringly uphold the position that free and unsectarian education is the chief bulwark of our free institutions which have resulted from it and cannot be otherwise maintained.
Hence we will strongly and persistently combat any and all movements looking to the introduction of any form of religion into our Public School system. We denounce as un-American and unfit for American citizenship those who, by any means whatever, seek to undermine and destroy it. Free loyal Americans, as personified in the A. P. A., have never sought quarrels, never turned tricks or local abuses into National policy—but at the same time have never tamely submitted to actual or impending curtailment of their rights.""And now, in conclusion, I appeal to all the descendants of our liberty-loving and free-born ancestors to fall in line, and with the spread of our principles over this broad land we shall stand as the silver lining for the dark cloud that has arisen on our political horizon, and to my brother Democrats who have denounced me, called me unpatriotic, even un-American, unconstitutional and almost inhuman, let me say that in becoming a member of the American Protective Association I did so through love of liberty, love of country and the preservation of the rights all that pertains thereto, which is today being menaced by foreign foes, all of which I will oppose to the end by peaceful means, but if necessary would not hesitate to draw the sword."

"CHARLES LUKS."

A young man from Harrodsburg Sunday morning went out to the barn, so the story goes, to gather the daily supply of eggs. He was dressed, for church, and, the eggs being very plentiful, he placed a number of them in his rear coat pocket to carry to the house. In his hurry to get to church he forgot all about the eggs, and after the first hymn by the choir, of which he was a member, he sat down on the pockful of eggs. Why buy go into further details—the eggs did the rest.
